

The first time I saw Palle drive a go-kart, his skill level did not impress me. Nevertheless, Palle approached me and asked for some tips. We quickly began planning training sessions together, and since that day, Palle has developed at an incredible pace. He now leads the Senior Championship at Vandel Go-Kart and won the qualification for the DINO Danish Championship. In a very short time, he has reached a level where he competes with those who have been racing go-karts for over a decade. This is remarkable, especially compared to others his age who have been racing for many years. Palle's progress and dedication have truly been outstanding and an inspiration to many.
